Madame Julia Maas,
27 Rue Mignot Delstanche X.L.,
Brussels, Belgium

Dear Mrs. Maas,

Thank you for your letter of November 28th. You certainly have been very patient in this matter and I am extremely sorry that the balance due on the 'Cello has not yet been forthcoming. Mr. Silva's Gofriller Cello was actually sold but we finally found out a few weeks back that the buyer could not live up to his word and could not produce the money to pay for it. Both Mr. Silva and myself are now making the greatest efforts to find another buyer for the instrument so that we can settle with you as soon as possible. Unfortunately things are getting worse and worse here in our line and buyers are very scarce, but rest assured that we shall do everything in our power to get the matter straightened out.

Please accept my very sincere thanks for your patience and I do hope you will not have to wait much longer.

With very best wishes to you for Christmas and the New Year,

Yours very sincerely,

Emil Herrmann

P.S. I omitted to say that in August I moved my business from New York to my home here in Connecticut where I have a very beautifully equipped studio. I go to New York regularly every two weeks for two or three days and stay at the Great Northern Hotel, West 57th Street, and so keep in touch with customers.
please address all letters : "Fiddledale", R.F.D.2, STEPNEY, Conn, as above.
